Redding Rotary Thanksgiving Project History

In approximately 1980 Soroptimist International of Redding started what is now known as our Rotary Thanksgiving project. In 1984 Soroptimist Vice President Karen Edkin Stovall approached Rotary President Chet Moore to see if Rotary would join for a joint service club project. Ray Foust who was President Elect at the time was named to be the co-chair with Karen. They chaired the project together for many years.

After doing the project for several years together, Soroptimist decided to abandon the project and Rotary continued the project. From that time until present, the warehouse has been held at Bernice and Pat Corey's warehouse.

In the beginning all the applicants were screened by Rotary members phoning for several nights at the House of Realty. The number of families ran as high as 450 one year. John Mathena provided routing maps and each recipient was attached to a route. Due to the large number of recipients, some Rotarians delivered to as many as 12 different families. Karen sent Dr. John Keye all the way to Big Bar to deliver to seven families. (He was gone until midafternoon). Many Rotarians brought their children and wives to help deliver.

The project has been scaled down over the years and now Rotary's main function is to collect the food, purchase the turkeys, box the food and deliver to the families. They no longer have to find the recipients or call them. This is provided through various agencies like NCSS, Salvation Army and many churches.

What a wonderful project to have been in existence for thirty five years.

Bill Howland delivers turkey and all the trimming to a grateful recipient.
