A WEEKLY PUBLICATION
OF THE ROTARY CLUB OF REDDING

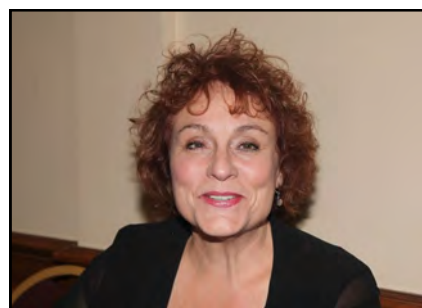

Club Social Event of the Year — Great Fun

Past President Amelia Ward

The Redding Rotary Christmas party was again fun for all who attended. Thanks to Amelia Ward, Kathy Anderson and all her helpers all had a great time. There was great music and dancing. The younger members of the club strutted and showed their moves. The more mature club members did the best they could, some overdoing it; then went home to find the Tylenol and Ibuprophen. The featured entertainment was provided by the Madrigal Singers from Shasta High School. As always they provided just the right atmosphere. This Express is dedicated to the Redding Rotary Christmas Party.

Past President Kathy Anderson

The Madrigal Singers, each member making their own costumes, sang several selections. A special thank you to the Madgrials for a very special presentation. Click HERE and HERE to listen to the selections.

There was music for all to dance

Some folks cutting the rug are Ashlee Tate and Richard Malotky, John and Pat Dunlap, Parvin Carter and Ken Wood. Many stayed and danced to the very end of the evening.

To add to the Christmas spirit, this is the house almost directly across from the Riverview Golf and Country Club. Included a flashing star on the roof and left side of the home.
