L-R PP Gary Burks, Leslie Williemi, Pres. Dave

Jonathan Anderson went on a fishing trip to Trinity County. Caught a nice steelhead and gave a $100 for the experience. Thanks, Jonathan and nice fish. Would have been nice to see the one that got away.

Matt Morgan went on a vacation to Hawaii and made up in Maui. Matt brought back a club banner from Maui and gave $100 to the club. Thanks, Matt.

Valentine's Day: Once more Amelia Ward and her committee decorated our lunch tables with beautiful holiday décor. Love was definitely in the air! The centerpieces and place settings were beautiful. Our thanks to Amelia and her hard working committee.

Program: PPs Gary Burks and Steve Westlake tested our knowledge of the club and its history by asking a series of questions. There was appropriate music for each question. It became clear early on that they had overestimated our intelligence. As they asked the questions, PP Gary could be heard saying, “It’s in the book, it’s in the book”. That presupposed our ability to read. Some representative questions were “How many Rotarians have February birthdays? Name them.” And “Name five Rotarians who have the distinction of being past presidents, Paul Harris fellow, completed a Shan, and are veterans.” After a few hints, the answers were forthcoming. It was great fun, but PP Gary was overhead to say, “It’s good that we are involved in Reading Rotarians, because some of us need to read the book a little bit more. Thanks, Steve and Gary for most entertaining program.

Stephanie Schwartz was last seen buying a lotto ticket after being lucky enough to play the Fun Raising card game and win the door prize. By being picked in both drawings, she is designated a “Lucky Lady”.

Dual drawing winner, Stephanie Schwartz
