- The Veterans Memorial Plaque was on display to remember the sacrifices made by our veterans.
- President Dave recognized both Kristy Lanham and Jake Mangas for having completed their two year terms of service on the Club's Board of Directors. Thank you Kristy and Jake for your service and commitment to Redding Rotary.

- President Dave presented the awards for the Rotarians of the Quarter:

1st Quarter: Kathy Anderson (absent). Kathy was instrumental in obtaining a grant that resulted in a visit to Redding by a delegation from Ukraine. She wrote the grant and chaired the committee that hosted our foreign visitors. Great Job Kathy!

2nd Quarter: Todd Davis. Todd is an extremely active member of Redding Rotary. Among other things, he is a Co-Chair of the Key Way Committee, serves as a “Badger” for new members, and is involved in Camp Royal. Congratulations Todd!

3rd Quarter: Greg Balkovek (absent). Greg serves on the membership committee and he resurrected the Rotary Club’s Wild Game Feed, a fun and popular event. Thank you Greg!

4th Quarter: Jennifer Finnegan. Despite only being in the Club for 10 months, Jennifer has made an immediate, positive impact. She joined the group of musicians who plays music and entertains the Club before each meeting. is involved. Among her many activities, she chaired the I-House Committee, sold tickets for the Club’s weekly fundraiser, and was an outstanding team captain, hosting more socials than any other team. Thank you Amelia. We all greatly appreciate the sacrifices you make on a regular basis on behalf of Rotary.

- President Dave recognized Amelia Ward as the Rotarian of the Year. If something is happening in the Club, you can bet that Amelia

Passing the Gavel

With the Beach Boys singing “Surfin’ USA” in the background, our new Club President, Ray Stewart, made his, “like, totally awesome” entrance. Ray, carrying a “rad” surfboard and wearing some “gnarly” board shorts with a “bitchin” hat, looked ready to ride some “epic” waves. He went to every table and to everyone, he was like, “Hey Bud, Let’s Party!”

After President Dave passed the gavel to President Ray, President Ray explained that he grew up surfing in Huntington Beach. He stated that, as President, his focus would be on maintaining scholarship opportunities and Rotary's emphasis on eradicating polio. He also said he planned to be "unpredictable" with Rotary Club members asking themselves, "What is that clown going to do today?"

President Ray

Or is this President Ray?

Speaking of clowning around, President-Elect Richard Malotky, along with the Board of Directors, arrived wearing fire hats and carrying a snow ski with shot glasses attached to it. The fire hats reflected President Ray's new role in "putting out fires." And the "Shot Ski," that was just for fun as President Ray and other members of the Board did "Shot Skis" to the enjoyment of the Club. The new Redding Rotary year was off to a "most excellent" start. Cowabunga Dude!!

Get Ready and . . .

SHOT SKI!!
