Today's Program - Life in Cuba

Mike Mangas introduced our speaker for the day, Jack Trout. Jack has been a long time fishing guide, originally based out of Mt. Shasta where he provided his services just in our north state region. Realizing the need to diversify and expand his business, he began to look at taking his business internationally by providing one-day all-inclusive fishing guide services to such locations as Chile and Cuba. His presentation today focused on his guide service in Cuba.

With the recent relaxation of tourism from the US to Cuba, Jack has seized on a great opportunity to expose his clients to not only great fly fishing, but also the unique cultural and historical offerings of the country.

Jack Trout, fishing and cultural guide presenting behind his 7-foot tarpon

On the topic of the classic cars we're all familiar with in Cuba, he described the automotive experience in Cuba as "like being in the Twilight Zone". One of his specific tours focuses on these beautiful classics as seen on his website specific for this service, cubaclassictour.com.

His all-equipment-provided fishing tours often take his clients to the historic Bay of Pigs, a pristine fishing ground where one can catch tarpon, bonefish and permit fish. Catch one of each on the same day and you've earned the "Grand Slam" honor, complete with a t-shirt to prove your accomplishment. Jack focuses on fly fishing only, and brought to the meeting a couple of the very large and stout fishing rods he uses there.

Other notable cultural reasons to visit Cuba and take advantage of his tours includes the beautiful beaches, cigars, rum, sugar, lobster, and historic buildings like Hemingway's ranch.
