Little Ole Clockmaker Dennis Ward

By Spillway Reporter Marjeanne Stone

Dennis first joined Rotary in 1969, in South Pasadena. It has been an important part of his life since then. He moved around a bit in his varied careers, then joined Redding Rotary in 1998. Dennis rarely misses a Rotary meeting. Through Rotary he has developed close relationships.

Dennis is originally from Fargo, North Dakota. His parents relocated to California and were in Burbank in 1950. Both his Grandfather and Father were clockmakers. It seems Dennis was destined to follow in their footsteps. Creating beautiful clocks is his passion. Dennis was an active member of the Boy Scouts and was an Eagle Scout. This background opened opportunities for his earlier career as a Director for Boy Scouts Associations. His love of the outdoors and his love of scouting were gifts he shared through his work on behalf of the Boy Scouts.

Dennis graduated from Oakland High School and went to St. Mary's College in Moraga. He then went to the University of Idaho, Moscow, where he got a degree in forestry. He always loved the outdoors. "My work in forestry was not what gave me satisfaction. I was always fighting fires, and having to put a dollar value on trees."

He started in forestry but then moved to being District Boy Scout Executive, covering the LA area. Dennis then went into banking. Dennis worked for Great Western Banks, and was an assessor in various locations, including Northridge, Paradise, and Roseville. Dennis and Amelia moved here in 1998. He was a Senior Vice President, with responsibilities for over 440 employees in 23 states. Then, twenty years ago, he accepted a "Golden Handshake" and took early retirement, which gave him the time to pursue his cherished career with clocks...opening his own clock shop: buying, selling, lovingly repairing, collecting, and creating beautiful pieces of time-telling art.

Dennis' hobbies included outdoor activities, camping, appreciating our forests, family, and his beloved clocks. He has an incredible workshop with a carefully designed area for his collection.

Dennis and Amelia met through their banking careers. Amelia was a loan officer. They have been married for 40 years, and are the proud parents of 5 children and 10 grandchildren! Two of their children have been in the Air Force.

Dennis and Amelia share their love of Rotary at home and in the community. Dennis explains that "Rotary is about relationships..." He meets regularly with a coffee klatch made up of almost entirely Rotarians. He said that the people are what make Rotary special. The members' enthusiasm is crucial. "You need to get involved. Do something. Don't miss a Rotary meeting." Dennis hopes that members do not drop out, just because their careers or jobs change. Friendships and service continue.

Dennis Ward is a great example to newer members. He has embodied the development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service. He shares Rotary with Amelia, who is accepting new responsibilities in our District, and he treasures the friendships and relationships of Rotary. Dennis has a ready smile and consistent presence in our club. He has good Rotarian friends because he is just that – a true friend of Redding Rotary.
