Breanna Corp our speaker today is an Interpretive Park Ranger and Graphics Designer who has worked at our Whiskeytown National Recreation Area from the summer of 2010 to the present. A Redding area native, Bree earned her Associate of Science Degree at Shasta College in 2012. Jill Letendre Returns to Redding Rotary Jill Letendre returned to Redding Rotary at Thursday's meeting following an eight-year absence. Now a US Bank District Manager with the Rotary classification of "Banking", she originally joined us in October 2008, but a new job took her to Yreka in 2011, then back to Redding. In the interim, she was active in the Yreka and Redding West Rotary Clubs.

Currently sponsored by Gary Burks and Tracy Preston, Jill was named Redding Rotarian of the Quarter in June 2011. She and husband Brett have two daughters, McKenna, age 12, and Reagan, age 8. In her spare time, Jill serves as Board Chairman of the United Way of Northern California, is active with the Leadership Redding Steering Committee, Northern Valley Catholic Social Service board and likes running and watching her kids' activities.

Jill Letendre introduced by PP Greg Balkovek

Richard's Recognitions

Brian Seamans was first to feel President Richards wrath. It seems Brian was golfing in Bandon, Oregon. He said he experienced every kind of weather you could imagine, wind, rain, hail, sun and even snow. I couldn't hear how Brian's score worked out. The score must have been a good one because he gave the club $200. Thanks Brian for the generous contribution.

Dar Barzin was the next one ambushed. Because of his crystal clean background, Dar was recognized for his continuing efforts to collect blood for Redding Rotary's ongoing blood donation program. Great job Dar and thanks for the $100 donation. Dar mentioned because of the March 29th I House visit the Blood Donation program on that day has been rescheduled to a later date.

Past President John Dunlap was next in the cross hairs. John was recognized for a recent article written about the relocation of Costco to the area at the junction of South Bonnieview and Bechelli Lane. John suggested the traffic problems created by Costco being at this location would impact everyone trying to get to a Redding Rotary meeting as well as any function at Riverview Golf and Country Club. Thanks for the $100 John.

James Theimer has mentioned that his son is now flying the AV-8B Harrier II. James mentioned his son was undergoing his flight tests. It seems he had some difficulty at the beginning of the test but James mentioned he didn't crash the aircraft. Since then he has soloed several times and completed his test. It should be mentioned this aircraft is one of the most difficult to fly of all the aircraft in our arsenal. Congratulations to James son. Thanks for the donation of $100 to your sons Paul Harris.
