

Meeting Date: April 12, 2018

Project Healing Waters

Before the meeting started, Marjeanne Stone entertained us with her beautiful piano playing. Thanks, Marjeanne. President Richard introduced Team 2 Co-Captain, Jessica Whitlow who got things going. Mike Martin led us in the pledge, Rick Fauss did the invocation, and PP Chuck Ryan introduced guests. There were no visiting Rotarians.

Recognitions: Leslie Williem took her family to Oahu and then on to Disneyland. $100 to the club. Thanks, Leslie.

Jeff Avery took his family on a cruise to Mexico. Had a great time and donated "whatever he still owes". Thanks, Jeff.

Mary Brace took her daughter to Indiana to the twirling championships. Had a great time. Mary, also said "whatever she owes. Thanks, Mary."

Program: Jim Tornillo from the local chapter of Project Healing Waters gave a talk describing how PHW helps active duty and disabled veterans learn how to fly fish as a form of therapy. It was started in 2005 at Walter Reed Hospital and is now nationwide.

Their Mission Statement is: Project Healing Waters Fly Fishing, Inc. is dedicated to the physical and emotional rehabilitation of disabled active military service personnel and disabled veterans through fly fishing and associated activities including education and outings.

Project Healing Waters Fly Fishing has become recognized nationally as an innovative leader and model in the field of therapeutic outdoor recreation for the disabled, through its successful application of the sport of fly fishing as a rehabilitation tool.

Each chapter teams up with a local fly fishing group. In Redding, that is the Shasta Fly Fishers. There is no charge to participate, and equipment and services are also supplied at no charge. Participants learn to fish and enjoy the outdoors. In the process they come to know each other and often become friends, enjoying other activities outside of fishing. The below pictures tell the story best.
