Job Shadow Day

A great day of students visiting businesses, state agencies and city agencies. A day for high school students to check out their possible career by being on the job. This program has great results by encouraging those that love what they see on the job. It can also be beneficial by letting the student know their choice of a job to monitor is not what they want to do. There is nothing sadder than going to a university and obtaining a degree only to find out you don't like your occupation. Job Shadow definitely gives the student an idea of what to expect on the job.

Our leaders of Job Shadow Day included both Michelle Nystrom and Rob Adams. Michelle always wanted to be a fire fighter. She is now the CEO of O2 Employment Services. Rob Adams always wanted to be a pilot. Rob gave us a little insight of what Redding Rotary Airways would be like.

Club Announcements

Team 3 and 4 are having a joint team meeting next week. Announcement by Karen Karnatz, Courtney McElvain, Amelia Ward and Susie Michiels.

Rotary Spring Training Day at Simpson University Saturday, April 13th. Good Keyway opportunity.

NSP10 Joint Social Tuesday April 9th at CR Gibbs.

Amelia Ward need housing for 8 more students for the I House Visit March 24th through 28th.

Wendy Dickens wants all to attend our Redding Rotary Bowlathon, Saturday, April 27th. The dress up theme is Heroes vs Villains. Time 5:00 p.m.— 8:30 p.m.

Greg's Recognitions

President Greg in honor of Job Shadow Day talked about his career aspirations. First he wanted to be a cowboy so he spent some time on a horse ranch. To much work and to little pay. Next he joined the fire department. That seemed to be pretty tough work having to jump to task day and night. Finally he became an engineer because he was always building something. $50 for time used.

Matt Morgan was next with a picture of an electric motorcycle. Full charge about 1 1/2 hrs riding time. The make is KTM and looked very impressive. Next Matt was honored to mention he bought the doll house for his daughter Haley at our Redding Rotary Auction. Matt donated $100 to the club and started a Paul Harris Fellow for his daughter at $100. Thanks Matt.

Randy Smith mentioned that at a recent team social, Rush Lenroot had monopolized all of our District Governor, Jon Dwyer's time for over 40 minutes. Rush said it took that long to explain the poppy seed planting project that had been so successful after the fire. I think Rush volunteered to pay the balance of his commitment which is $200. Thanks Rush

Finally Tom Semingson was glad to show off a picture of the family at Disneyland. His daughter did a dance performance at Disneyland. Tom was $100 proud.

Thanks to all for your donations.
