Club announcements

- Joe Ayer - there's a national and regional need for blood donations as blood inventories are at a critically low level right now. If you can donate, please schedule online at www.vitalant.org or call 877-258-4825.
- Amelia Ward - reminded everyone of our upcoming fundraiser auction to take place on Valentine's Day. Doors open at 11:00 am for the silent auction
- Amelia - also reminded everyone about the need for host families for this year's I-House event. If you can help, please reach out to Amelia.
- Tom Semington - announced that his wife is running for Mayor of Cottonwood and that she is selling raffle tickets for three guns to benefit their local library. See Tom if you'd like to participate. He offered $100 to club in exchange for his solicitation.
- President Greg - tried to wish Julie Winter a happy birthday, but in her absence no singing of the birthday song took place.

Craft Talk

Our very own City Manager Barry Tippin gave his craft talk today and titled it "civil engineers can do anything" in honor of President Greg and his own career history. Barry started his professional career as a civil engineer having graduated from Chico State. His path took him working at an engineering firm, to Caltrans here in Redding, to City of Redding engineer, to Assistant City Manager, and then to his current role as City Manager. Great presentation Barry!

Recognitions

- Mike Ashby & Rick Hill were spotted by President Greg at Mosaic Restaurant and then following at the ZZ Top concert recently. Photo evidence showed Mike, Rick, and President Greg on stage with some amazing facial hair. No Photoshop was involved we're sure. All three ponied up $100 each for their Paul Harris.
- David Kehoe was honored for his 27 years in public service - $100
- Mike Warren was outed as ducking out on his Sergeant At Arms responsibilities last week by "dropping the mic" on Joe Wyse so he could make a double-booked meeting - $100
- Jeanne King - for teaching a class on non profit governance at Shasta College (after all, she's been doing that for 40 years) - $100 to her Paul Harris
- Nikki Anthony - at a recent national leadership summit for her company Addeco Staffing. Her branch was recognized as having the highest NPS rating of all the 300 Addeco branches - $100 to the club and $100 to the Foundation.
- Mark Woodward - for a New Year's trip to Cancun (great sink holes there) - $100 to the club, $100 to his Paul Harris.
- Gary Burks - for promoting National Beer Can Appreciation Day - $100

Today's Program - Klean Kanteen

Jennifer Finnegan introduced the speaker for today's program, Caroleigh Pierce, Non Profit Outreach Director for Klean Kanteen, a Chico-based company. Klean Kanteen, a family and employee-owned company, has been in business for 15 years and sells its various products to 43 countries world wide. Their products provide an alternative to single-use beverage products which are typically made from plastic, polystyrene and the like, with products made primarily from stainless steel and baked enamel.

In addition to distributing their eco-friendly and BPA free products, this company of 75 employees strives to make a difference in communities by serving a diverse group of non-profits - over 40 in all. Their contributions to these groups include financial contributions, product donations, and hands-on volunteer work.

Caroleigh Pierce of Klean Kanteen

In their fight against single-use waste, Klean Kanteen promotes the concept of #bringyourown beverage containers to combat the following statistics regarding plastics:

- 8 million metric tons of plastic enter our oceans each year
- 1 in 4 fish tested have plastic in their gut
- In the US we use 500 million straws per day
- 98% of plastic pollution in the ocean comes from land
- By 2050 there could be more plastic in the oceans than fish (by weight).
