Valentine's Auction

The belated Valentine's Auction was such a fun event! We had a large crowd at this Thursday's meeting and the room glowed in red in celebration of our belated Valentine's Day Auction. The club was gifted over sixty silent auction packages and twenty-six live auction packages. Everything was sold! Congratulations to Rick Hill for winning the necklace raffle.

Marjeanne Stone played some lovely music and Jessica Whitlow decorated the room in red hearts everywhere. Thank you to our Auction Committee Chair, Amelia Ward, and her entire team for a fun event. The financial outcome will be announced to the club once all sales and expenses have been finalized.

In Memory of Noble Streeter

Tom Streeter, son of the late Rotarian Noble Streeter, joined our club this week to present some of Noble's Rotary memorabilia to our club. This included Noble's collection of Rotary flags from around the world and all his Paul Harris pins and various awards and plaques having to do with Rotary. Thank you, Tom, for sharing some of your father's memories with this club. We will remember his dedication and love for Rotary.
