

Athletic Scholarship Day

One of The Rotary Club of Redding's favorite projects is the granting of scholarships. The Athletic Scholarship is awarded to young adults who excel in sports and academics. Several Redding Rotarians are involved with this worthwhile program. Steve Westlake introduced the days proceedings. Former Rotarian and Editor of the Redding Record Searchlight, Silas Lyons gave the opening remarks. Silas honored the three contributors to the Athletic Scholarship Program. They include the Ken Seamans Family Endowment, The Redding Record Searchlight and The Rotary Club of Redding.

Past President Steve Westlake

RS Editor Silas Lyons

The program speaker was Greg Grandell. Greg is the football coach for West Valley High School. Greg is retired but is still the coach of the West Valley High School football team.

Greg said winning the Northern Section Championship was very nice but more important is how the team got to the championship level.

The team needed to learn to work together as a group, respect and honor each other. Greg feels academics and athletics go hand in hand. Greg mentioned he had a group of boys come together to do a project for a handicapped person. One of the boys asked how much they would be paid. Greg said nothing. We were doing the project because it was "the right thing to do."

The criteria for the Athletic Scholarship Award is as follow:

- 1. GPA or Academic Achievement
- 2. Athletics - Especially in multiple sports
- 3. Community involvement and service.

The students come from Siskiyou, Trinity, Shasta and Tehama Counties. There were many applicants with six finalist chosen both men and women. The boys were first to the stage and introduced without knowing who the top winner was. That was announced after all were introduced.

President Greg's Recognitions

King Tom

Samurai Diane and Bob Kempsey

President Greg called on your editor Tom Stovall first. Tom was recently spotted at a Senior Corps celebration dinner being honored along with all the other California Highway Patrol volunteers for their service. Tom mentioned he would like to contribute what ever is left on his pledge.

Bruce Dean is building a house literally on the river. Dean also said to clean up whatever he has left on his pledge.

Diane Kempsey has become a world traveler. She and Bob visited China, South Korea, Japan, Alaska and Canada. Diane also cleaned up her pledge.

Trudy Tavares was next. President Greg must be reaching. He went after Trudy for a recognition mentioning "tax season" is over. Trudy is retired and is only a CPA in name. Trudy was gracious saying she also would donate what was left on her pledge.
