Maurice Johannessen

Maurice

the community builders.”

Maurice first joined Redding East Rotary back in September of 1988. When he became engaged in public service, notably as an elected official, he was not able to keep actively involved. He was later able to return to Rotary, and because he knew most of the members he chose to join Redding Rotary on November 11th, 2004.

Maurice very much appreciates Rotary and is very supportive of the work that we do and the various projects that he is able to contribute towards. He has multiple Shans and Paul Harris Fellowships. He is particularly proud of the work that Rotary International has done towards eradicating polio throughout the world.

As a man deeply involved in our community he stated that “the people in Rotary are

Maurice serves on the Finance committee currently and his most important commitment is to the Veterans' Committee. Maurice has held elective offices for our city, county, and our district; his community involvement extends far beyond the confines of our local area.

Maurice receives, "Thanks" from Simpson University

What an adventurous and noted history this Rotarian brings! His parents were Adventist missionaries in South Africa, but his mother returned to her parental home in Oslo, Norway, where Maurice was born in his grandfather's home. Not long after, they returned to Chad, but the Nazi rumblings of war caused the family to go home. His father was a physician and academic. He was very involved in the underground, especially when Norway was invaded by the Germans. His mother managed to hold the family together as father was imprisoned. Sadly she became ill and died in 1942; by then Maurice was the eldest of three children. His brother and sister went to live with an aunt in Bergen, and Maurice went to live with another aunt on their farm.

When the war ended his father was very involved in his business and restaurant. With 3 children, he wisely engaged Helen who became the youngsters' surrogate mother.

After graduated from 7th grade, Maurice chose to enroll in trade school where he was dedicated to learning. He completed the trades program at age 14. He began working in a machine shop, learning skills of welding and concentrated precision metal work. Eventually Owanderlust hit, and at 15 he found himself as a deck hand in the merchant marine. Although constantly seasick he stuck with it, dreaming of the United States. While Maurice was traveling the world his father emigrated to Glendale, California and soon Maurice himself landed in San Pedro, June 2, 1952, just before his 18th birthday. He quickly found work, romance, and dreams of becoming a US citizen.

He joined the US Army in 1953 and married Charlotte after boot camp. Soon their first son, Steven, was born followed by their second son Mark and finally their third son, Scott. During all of this time Maurice studied and earned his American high school diploma. On August 2, 1955, Maurice became a US Citizen.

Maurice completed his tour of duty and began working at a company that produced hardware used in space technology. He started college at night, and for a little extra excitement he combined his fascination with machinery and speed at the racetrack. Thus began his fondness for special cars.

Maurice loves animals. Settling down as a family man brought the first of several cats. These were not just your casual domestic house cat, but a Margay, a mountain lion, and a Jaguar.

Maurice was Recognized for Animal Recovery Donation

Having a strong aptitude for law enforcement, he joined the LA Sheriff's Department as a reserve deputy. He never truly left law enforcement. He has served over 38 years in some capacity, finally retiring in 1996. Maurice remained actively in the reserves until 1959, when he and Charlotte welcomed their daughter, Stella.

It was around this time that Maurice's brother, John, who had moved to Redding, asked Maurice to help him in his business. The brothers ran Repco, and Maurices' talents turned it into a thriving business. Never one to remain still for long, he soon added other opportunities including stints with Kimberly Clark, Simpson Paper, and real estate properties. He began running for public office in 1968.

In the early 70's he began Johannessen's folly – Viking Skate Country. This was truly a family venture that still offers local families hours of entertainment! In August, 1976, Maurice re-married, this time to his soulmate and dearest friend, Marianne, who has walked beside him ever since.

As an elected official, Maurice was elected to the Redding City Council in 1986 and served as Major in 1988. In 1990 he was elected Supervisor for Shasta County District 1, and in 1992 he was elected to represent the 4th District in the California Senate.

In recent years he maintains an active life with his businesses and with his family ranch in the Viola area. Here he maintains his love of animals and the beautiful outdoors, and he remains committed to Veterans needs. He was the force and the vision behind the Veterans' Home on Knighton Road, and is involved with the developing of the so-needed and vital Veterans' Clinic that will be located across the road and encompass the full scope of needed services for those who have served.

Full of energy, with a quick wit, and immense compassion for our community, Maurice is definitely a community builder. He asks you, fellow Rotarian's, to join him, and to carry his torch, creating a growing, solid foundation for the future of our north state. Truly, he shows us service above self, and he encourages us to join him, get and remain involved, and follow his lead.

The Shan, Its history and Operation

by: Past President John Dunlap

The idea for the Shan was conceived during the term of Don Carter. He was the president known as "C-Note Carter" for originating what has become the "standard $100 recognition", allegeable and at least partly because the Club was becoming too large to find accommodations. Formerly, $20 was considered pretty stiff.

The Shan had two basic reasons for being. One, there were and are members who contribute substantially through "recognitions" exceeding the average, sometimes substantially. Secondly, the Clubs annual awarded two Paul Harris awards for outstanding community service, one to a Club member and one to a nonmember.

The award to the Club member was changed from a Paul Harris award to a Shan whereby those dollars could remain with the Club to support its local programs. The award to the community member was to remain as a Paul Harris fellowship because of both its mission and world-wide recognition.

The Shan name was adopted after being suggested by Lou, Lou, Lou Gerard to honor J. Ronan Shannon, an outstanding Rotarian who served as our President in 1940-41.

Each year the Club establishes and operates on a budget mainly supported by recognitions. There had been concerns, particularly during years with Paul Harris matching amounts, if too many recognitions went to those contributions, there would not be enough available to fully support the Club budget. So, in order not to compound this concern, in establishing the Shan it was provided that all recognitions of a Club member exceeding $100 a year would be applied toward the member's Shan and remain with the Club, and when those amounted to at least $1000, the Shan fellowship would be awarded, provided the member had previously attained a Paul Harris fellowship.

At the end of each Club year, the Board has reviewed the income and expenses, including a bit of priming for next year's programs, and allocated a large portion of the remainder to the Club Endowment. In my year, that amounted to $23,000. Through the years, the cap on the Endowment has been reviewed to assure both the current Club's programs as well as those of future Club memberships could be served.

The amounts and operations of the Redding Rotary Endowment will be reported in a future article.
