Today's Program - Congressman Doug LaMalfa

President Jeff introduced today's speaker, Congressman Doug LaMalfa (R). Congressman LaMalfa expressed pleasure at being able to return to our Club and address us once again on current issues in California's Congressional 1st District.

He expressed how impressed he has been with the North State Community's ability to come together during difficult times such as the Carr and Camp Fires last year. He talked about folks moving back home, and folks moving into new homes, and how incredibly resilient the effected communities have been. He called the current PG&E power shut down, "incredibly unnecessary" and discussed steps he's been urging PG&E to take to avoid similar power shut downs in the future.

He informed that the power shut down was, in part, mandated by the State legislation. "California has very strict liability policies in this state which puts the liability on utilities," says C. ongressman LaMalfa As a result, he says, PG&E went "overboard" by shutting down all areas affected by the high winds that so often insite fires started by power lines.

Congressman Doug LaMalfa

Congressman LaMalfa talked about core issues for the State of California. "What creates wealth?" he asked. He said it isn't government, and it isn't policy. It's created by the people, "who have ideas, take chances, sought financing, brought inventions to the table, and want to go produce that. That's what's good, that's what's strong about Americans. We are a resilient group."

Thank you, Congressman LaMalfa, for supporting our North State!
