

Dinner With Jean Irwin-Hatfield

This week’s meeting was a special event as we moved our regular meeting time to the evening and invited our fellow Rotarians from Anderson, West Redding, East Redding, Redding Riverview Sunset, and Redding Sunrise. The reason for the occasion was to hear noted Rotary Speaker Jean Irwin-Hatfield. Her presentation was titled “ Taking Language From the Rich and Giving It to the Poor: Lessons Learned From Nottingham”:

Jean is a Deaf Educational Specialist and long time advocate of the hearing impaired. Some 20-plus years ago, Jean received an Ambassadorial Scholarship that allowed her to do the groundbreaking research into reading and deafness, which earned her a Master’s Degree from Nottingham University in England. She has spoken at hundreds of Rotary Conferences and received numerous awards, including Rotary’s Service Above Self Award in 2009.

Jean considers one of her most important roles was serving as a grassroots coordinator for the passage of a Nevada bill requiring mandatory testing of hearing before a newborn can leave the hospital. Because hearing is so critical to language development, this assessment is particularly important. In the first two years after this bill was passed, Nevada moved from 36th to 8th in the nation for children tested at birth for hearing loss.

Jean’s presentation was entertaining, inspiring, and gave great insight into the life, education, communication, and challenges of the Deaf Community.

Thanks for being with us Jean!

President Jeff

Riverview is increasing our catering costs effective January 1. Due to this price increase, RCR will be raising the weekly meeting fee to $19.00 effective February 1, 2020.

Make-up meetings and guest meeting fees will now be $20.00.

History:

As of January 1, 2020, we will be paying $18.00 per meal plus a $250 monthly room charge to Riverview.

Riverview increased our lunch cost by 81 cents effective October 2017, bringing our meal cost to $17.06, plus a $250 monthly room charge. There was no meeting fee increase passed along to the members by RCR at this time.

The last time we raised meeting fees was in July 2008, when our meeting fee was raised to $18.00.

A breakdown on what your $19.00 weekly meeting fee goes towards:

$14.58 is food

$2.16 is surcharge (gratuity)

$1.26 is sales tax

Total per meal is $18.00 to Riverview

The remaining $1.00 goes toward our monthly room charge of $250.00
