

Tina's Visit Adds Up

"Everything we do as Rotarians adds up to so much more." This was the theme of District Governor, Tina Akins' talk at our recent Redding Rotary meeting. Governor Tina stressed the talent in all Rotary Clubs resulting in "Ideas building on idea." There are 1.2 million Rotarians all doing the same thing.

Governor Akins mentioned her favorite project was a trip to India vaccinating children for polio. She said the trip almost happened by accident and turned out to be a highlight of her life.

Eradicating polio has been a priority for Rotary since 1985. The efforts have vaccinated 2.5 billion children world wide. Tina mentioned seeing several people showing the effects of polio in India. We in the United States have been fortunate to have all the most advance medical treatments available in the treatment of polio. Tina also mentioned the advantages of matching funds in the fight against polio. This continues at both the club and district level.

Governor Akins honored several Redding Rotarians for their work epitomizing the "Four Way Test" and the ideals of Rotary. In the picture below are Jason Salter (great cook) and Jennifer Finnegan (hard worker) receiving the "It All Adds Up" award. Thanks Tina for a great talk and visit.

Looking at the above 5160 District Conference invitation and ad mentions the Sheraton Hotel being the home of the conference in Redding, The Sheraton Hotel manager Marjorie Culley donated $100 to her Paul Harris Fellow. President Jeff Avery mentioned he would give $50 to be added to Marjorie's donation.

Redding West visitor Randy Denham generously donated $100 to the club for advertising "A Taste of Redding." The date is June 14th from 12 noon to 4 p.m. This is a day of delicious food, spirits and entertainment.

Janice Cunningham was featured with a new home along the beautiful Rogue River in Oregon. The cottage a thing of beauty thanks to Janice. When asked how it has effected her family's life her reply was, "definitely a pain in the ass." $100 for her Paul Harris.

President Jeff asked all who are members of the infamous Koffee Klatch to stand. At their recent annual dinner it is customary for the ladies attending to flip a coin at the end of the dinner for a nice reward. Four members came without a partner. They were paired up with one becoming the spouse for the flip. The winners of the flip were pp Dee Potter and pp Tom Stovall. Tom was designated the spouse. A very interesting image of the couple is here for all to see. Dee donated all his winnings plus $60 to his Paul Harris. Tom finished off his pledge to Rotary for the year.

Tim Thomas, once working for Redding Electrical Utility is now an employee of PG&E. This brought some groans from the audience but why. Tim will be a great person to help with controlling power outages and other problems PG&E may have. Thanks to Tim for $100 to his PH and $100 to the club.

Wendy Dickens was asked for some details of an injury to her head. She is known to be a volunteer fire fighter. She declined the details, instead wanted to donate $100 to her Paul Harris. Thanks.

Jake Mangas jumped at the opportunity to fork out $100 to the club mentioning "A Taste of Redding" and his supporting the San Francisco 49ers in the Super Bowl.

Maggie Redman and John Mancasola in absentia were next to be featured. A recent event featuring John Mancasola's daughter Sydney, was immensely successful. There was not only a fantastic performance but the event raised $50,000 for the Mercy Foundation. Maggie donated $100 to her Paul Harris and mentioned John didn't know it yet but he will give $100 to his Paul Harris as well.

Riverview is increasing our catering costs effective January 1. Due to this price increase, RCR will be raising the weekly meeting fee to $19.00 effective February 1, 2020.

Make-up meetings and guest meeting fees will now be $20.00.

History:

As of January 1, 2020, we will be paying $18.00 per meal plus a $250 monthly room charge to Riverview.

Riverview increased our lunch cost by 81 cents effective October 2017, bringing our meal cost to $17.06, plus a $250 monthly room charge. There was no meeting fee increase passed along to the members by RCR at this time.

The last time we raised meeting fees was in July 2008, when our meeting fee was raised to $18.00.

A breakdown on what your $19.00 weekly meeting fee goes towards:

$14.58 is food

$2.16 is surcharge (gratuity)

$1.26 is sales tax

Total per meal is $18.00 to Riverview

The remaining $1.00 goes toward our monthly room charge of $250.00
