Induction of Michael Mack

John Dunlap sponsored new Rotarian Michael Mack, a former graduate of Shasta High School and fifth generation Redding local. He and his wife own MJM Services in Redding. Michael was presented with his Rotary plaques, pin, red badge, and apron for signatures. Welcome to the Rotary family, Michael!

New Red Badge - Larry Olmsted

We welcome back to the fold Larry Olmsted, President & CEO of United Way of Northern California! Larry says he's working on a record for the longest red-badge ever and would like to give us another Craft Talk so that the newer Rotarians can learn about him. Good to see you, Larry!

Rick Plummer shows off his Blue Badge.

Blue Badge - Rick Plummer

Congratulations on earning your Blue Badge, Rick! Rick's only been a red-badger since August of last year; that's a pretty quick turnaround. We're happy for you, Rick! That'll be $25 please. ;)

Honor to Youth

Diane Kempsey introduced this month's Honor to Youth Recipient, Kylie from Shasta College. Kylie is from Weaverville and graduated from Trinity High School. She made the Dean's List at Shasta College in Spring, Summer, and Fall 2019 and participates in Women's Basketball, Umoja Program, Student Senate, and Student Life. Congragulations, Kylie!

Kylie receives her Honor to Youth award.

Club announcements

- Amelia Ward thanked the entire Auction Committee for putting on last week's lunchtime event and grossing over $20,000 for our club! She also reminded everyone about I-House coming up and encouraged members to sign up to host a student.
- Wendy Dickens announced the Bowl-A-thon coming up on March 14th. (See page 4 for details.)
- Greg Dunbar announced the Rotary Project Life Skills Academy Friday, 2/21 at The Stirring.

Recognitions

- Wendy Dickens - picked on President Jeff Avery for not knowing people's names and was fined $100 for her trouble.
- Joe Ayer - recognized for his article in Enjoy Magazine, although he failed to mention his involvement with both First Five Shasta and the Rotary Club of Redding. He gave $100 for the recognition and another $100 for the omissions; both to the club.
- Missy McArthur - for her trip to Idaho and her bragging-rights for such an accomplished son she gave $100 to her Paul Harris.
- Maurice Johannasen - for sharing four photos of some VERY LARGE feline family members he gave $400 to the club.
- Dave Gerard - for his trip to Hawaii he gave everything he had left for the year.
- Todd Jones - for the Venture Hub's upcoming start-up weekend he gave $100 to his Paul Harris.
- Courtney McElvain & Eva Jimenez - for their participation in "Respond with Love" event, they gave $100 each to the club. Kristy Lanham also attended but wasn't present to be recognized.

I'd Like To Report a Theft!

What happened to the Rotary Bell? It took off again in the middle of President Jeff's program today. Apparently it has a severe case of wanderlust. I wonder where we'll see it pop up next?

- Jeff Avery - was fined $100 by the combined efforts of several Past Presidents for losing his bell in the middle of the meeting and for leaving the Redding West Rotary flag up during our entire club meeting.

Today's Program - Redding Pickleball

PP Greg Balkovek introduced today's speaker, Mike Archibald of Redding Pickleball. Mike taught us a little about Pickleball, including the fact that it's a paddle sport that combines the games of tennis, badminton, and ping pong. Rotarian Dee Potter is a member and recently injured himself "showing off to some ladies" he was playing with at Redding Pickleball game recently, according to Mike.

Mike Archibald (left) shows paddle & ball to President Jeff.

However, he doesn't want that to deter you from playing Pickleball. He said it's a very safe sport, he simply suggested some participants might need to remember they're not 18 anymore.

They currently have six courts in Enterprise Park that were painted about five years ago thanks to funds provided by The McConnell Foundation. They
