Michelle Nystrom: For taking the Rotary Bell. $100.

Program: The Club's own Michelle Nystrom and Rob Adams, along with Shasta High School Business Teacher Melissa Ray, informed the Club about the Job Shadow Program. Job Shadow is a powerful program for our community, creating opportunities for young people to experience real work environments in areas of their interest. The program provides a realistic outlook of what a job actually entails. Michelle and Rob dressed up as their first jobs: Michelle as a newspaper carrier, and Rob in the food service industry. The idea was to show that few people end up with careers in the field in which they were first hired. But "we all try things on," and trying different things will lead to our passion. Some of the career fields that participated in Job Shadow were as follows: criminal law, engineering, school psychology, information technology, medicine, advertising, dentistry, museums, and economic development. Two students in the Program spoke about their positive experiences with Job Shadow. Thank you Michelle, Rob, Melissa, the Job Shadow Committee, and all of the participants in making the Job Shadow Program such a success!

Michelle Nystrom &
Rob Adams
