Don't Stand So Close To Me – The Police

Message from President Jeff:

Greeting fellow Rotarians!

As I sit at my home office, with my 22 month old Grandson Hudson typing away, I've been reflecting on what an interesting year 2020 has been.

When I started my term as your president back in July 2019, I don't think any of us could have envisioned how 2020 is unfolding. While it isn't like Greg Dunbar's year with the Carr Fire, it definitely has been a different type of "emergency."

From our board meeting earlier this week we agreed we'll continue our "dark" meeting schedule until further notice. We will follow the guidelines laid out by our California government coupled with guidance from Rotary International and our Rotary District leadership.

I want to thank the Spillway committee for their creativity and continuing efforts to keep all of us up to date in an entertaining way. Also, if any Rotarians or their family need assistance, please reach out to us. We want to continue to assist our club members as the efforts by Jason Salter & Michelle Nystrom et al attest. Other projects like the Little Free Library led by Steve Westlake, Wendy Dickens, and the very modest Pat Corey are continuing and coming to completion.

Please stay safe and healthy. If there are any typos, remember Hudson was typing this.

Virtual Honor to Youth and Teacher of the Year

By Kathy Malain

At their last virtual board meeting the board graciously allowed us to complete our Honor to Youth Program by honoring the last four youth scheduled to be recognized, as well as our Teacher of the Year Program (teachers were nominated by their principals before the end of February). Diane Kempley, Peggy O'Lea and Kathy Malain will be "interviewing" the three teacher nominees that will be considered for two awards via separate Zoom meetings in the next couple of weeks. Since we are not meeting presently, awards are being mailed to the recipients.

Our Honor to Youth recipient for April is Isabel Harris, a 19-year-old Simpson College student from Colorado Springs, CO. She graduated from Pine Creek High School in 2018. She maintains a 4.0 GPA at Simpson College. Her Academic Honors include:

- Cross-Cultural Student of the Year (2019-2020)
- Dean's List - Double Major in Political Science and Cross-Cultural Studies
- Awarded for Best Group Presentation at 2020 Student Research
- Presented Individual Research Paper at 2020 Student Research Symposium

Isabel works for undergraduate Admissions (2018-2020) as a Student Campus Host, and as a Teacher's Assistant for the Cross-Cultural Studies Department. She is also the Resident Assistant for First Year Resident Hall (2019-2020), and she participates in Student Diversity Activism on Campus (she attended the SCORR conference). She is a member of the Rock Wall Team and the Outdoor Adventure Club. She is involved in the Homeless Community Development Project, and is also a Grant Writing Intern for ONETrack International Non-Profit Organization.

For her future plans, Isabel says, "I desire to work in social justice law, most likely internationally. I have a passion to see justice across the globe while also promoting cultural diversity and tolerance. I have an interest in foreign diplomacy and could also see myself in that field". She plans to attend Law School in the Fall of 2021 after graduating from Simpson University after 3 years.

While there have been "dozens of individuals" who have helped launch her toward her future, "First and foremost are my parents, Allen and Rebecca Harris. Being a first-generation college student comes with a unique set of obstacles, and my parents have been the most supportive and consistent people throughout my life." She would like to thank her incredible professors at Simpson University, and specifically, Dr. Stephen Bailey, who has "absolutely changed the way I think about God, missions, and the world around me, and challenged me to do and be better." Finally, she thanks all the friends who have "changed her life" and inspired her to be the best version of herself.
