Today's Program

Aaron Hayes, Catalyst Mentoring

Aaron Hayes
Catalyst Mentoring

Michelle Nystrom introduced this week's speaker, Aaron Hayes, from Catalyst Mentoring. Aaron shared that Catalyst Mentoring's Life Skills Academy was a dream that he and a couple of his friends came up with a few years ago. They realized from the beginning that they would need a partner to get this program up and running; the Rotary Club of Redding became that partner.

He shared a video to showed a recap of this year's Life Skills Academy event.

Aaron said, "this was a huge life-changing event for the youth of our community." After showing the video he shared some stories of the youth that participated in the program and how their lives were changed for the better after a short period of time workin with their mentors. Students learned skills like balancing a check book, how to open a checking account, how to prepare for interviews.

Another partner that Aaron mentioned was JC Penney. The kids were taken on a shopping spree at JC Penney to pick out clothes for their interviews, guided by Rotarian Kathy Malain who went with the kids as a mentor. The program only had about $500 to spend to get each student a shirt, maybe a tie for the men, to give them an idea of what their interview attire should be. The manager at JC Penney had another idea, and they went all out! Several of the students walked away with more than one complete interview outfit, and Aaron says that Kathy was in tears at the joy in the students' faces and the generosity of JC Penney. She said, "I've never been so proud of our community".

Aaron says the kids got so much more out of this learned experience than just content. The Life Skills Academy jammed six months of mentoring into a one-week experience. He said, "Every single Rotarian that showed up made a massive difference in these kids' lives."

They would love to hold a Life Skills Academy again and are hoping to make this an annual event for local students. If you'd like to learn more about Life Skills Academy you can visit their Facebook page through this link.
