City of Redding's COVID Response

Our fearless leader, President Jake Mangas, struck a very casual pose as he led our latest Zoom-based noon meeting, broadcasting live from Barry Tippin's office.

Rick Hill started off our meeting with his magical, musical guitar, and Team #1 Co-Captains Eva Jimenez & Kristi Davis introduced their team members taking part in today's meeting. Joe Girimonte led us in the pledge and Joe Wyse delivered the invocation. Thanks to all for playing their parts in making this another great meeting.

Announcements

Our sole announcement today was made by Wayne Martin representing the Good News Rescue Mission.

The Mission is conducting a collection drive for those in our community with some of the greatest needs. The primary items being requested are food and clothing - please see the detailed list in the graphic to the left.

Thanks to COVID-19, even something as simple as a collection drive requires adaptation. Here's the plan to keep everyone safe:

- Load non-perishable food items & any other donations in the backseat or trunk of your car.
- When you arrive at the drop-off, a volunteer wearing gloves & face mask will remove your donation from the backseat or trunk.

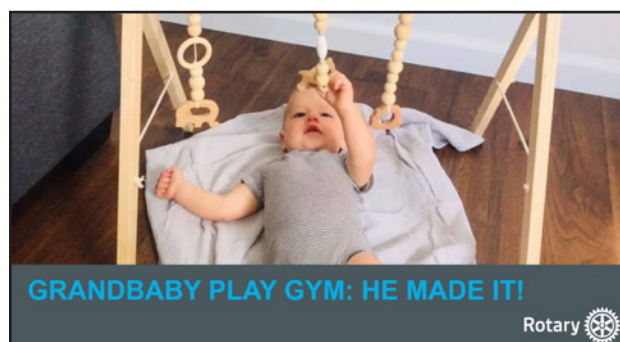

Be sure and mark your calendar for this important event, Wednesday September 16th!

Recognitions

- Wendy Dickens was recognized for making a life-giving blood donation during our recent Club Blood Drive. In the photo to the right, also pictured is Joe Ayer (previously recognized for this event) and Rory Greek (not present at today's meeting - look out next week Rory) - Wendy gave $100 to the Club.
- Falling on her sword, also for this event, was Laurie Baker giving $100 to the Club.

- Bret Christensen was recognized for a little woodworking project he built for his youngest grandson - $100 given to the Club.

Paul Harris Presentations

Showing some creativity in how things get done with our Club these days, this round of Paul Harris recognitions were presented in-person by Jeanne Jelke and recorded for playback during our Zoom meeting. Randy Tate had some introductory live comments during our meeting, then it was "roll tape!" for the playback of these donors. Not on video was Joe Girimonte receiving his x3 recognition.

Jeff Avery with a x2 recognition

Martin Flack with his first recognition

Tony Giovaniello with his first recognition

Marjeanne Stone with her first recognition

Maurice Johannessen with his x7 recognition

Ed Tam with his x8 recognition. Ed donated a Paul Harris in memory of Dr. Bill Howland

Today's Program - City of Redding's COVID Response

Todd Jones introduced the speaker for today, our own Barry Tippin, City of Redding Manager. Barry gave a run down of the many things the City has done to support the residents and businesses of Redding during the COVID crises.

For the City, things changed dramatically when City Hall was forced to close to the public beginning March 16th. Since then, about 40% of the staff has been working remotely. With telecommuting, they have seen increases in efficiency in some areas, but as expected, there has been a loss in human connectivity.

Chief among the actions taken by the City was the $37.5M Economic Response Plan, which is still being rolled out. Here are the details of this plan:

$37,500,000 ECONOMIC RESPONSE PLAN UNDERWAY

- Suspend return to owner fees - $200 (Haven Humane)
- Suspend late fees and interest - $60,000 (all general accounts receivable)
- Suspend utility shut-off - increase users cash flow
- Suspend utility late fees - $425,000
- Distribution of funds to REU account holders - $2,200,000
- Deferral of Transient Occupancy Tax - $250,000 (estimated)
- Modification of REU CARES Program - $1,500,000
- Modification of City Utilities Amortization Program – increase users cash flow
- Refund City of Redding Utilities deposits - $3,400,000
- Additional Cap and Trade distributions - $9,000,000 in addition to the previous $2,000,000
- Utility Grant Program for small businesses - $600,000
- Local Economic Stimulus Package - $20,000,000

Secondarily, Barry outlined two additional initiatives, $600K in community block grant funds, and $750K in CARES Act funding. Here are the specifics:

COMMUNITY BLOCK GRANT FUNDS - $600,000 (HUD parameters)

- Applications administered through Redding of Commerce
- $5,000 maximum per business
- No General Fund impact

CITY OF REDDING COMMITS TO PROVIDING $750,000 TO SMALL BUSINESSES

- Simple application process
- Focus on small businesses who are not recipients of PPE funds
- Priority given to businesses demonstrating the greatest need
- Infuse funds back into the community
- Incentivize businesses to remain open through the next several months
- Anticipate funding mid-September 2020
- No General Fund impact

Thanks Barry for a very informative presentation!
