Governor Mark Roberts Visits Our Club

Rick Hill entertained us before the meeting

Before the meeting started, Rick Hill entertained us with his beautiful guitar playing and played an original piece that he had written. Thanks, Rick. President Jake kicked off the meeting from the Gifford Pavillion at Turtle Bay, named after our late Rotarian Ken Gifford. He reminded us what a good person, Rotarian, and contractor Ken Gifford was. Those who were lucky enough to have known Ken were reminded how much he had contributed to our community and how he is truly missed. President Jake then introduced Team 2 co-captains, Wendy Dickens and Brad Rullman who got things going.

Rick Plummer gave the pledge, Marjeanne Stone did the invocation and PP Amelia Ward introduced visiting Rotarians and visitors. We were off and zooming.

Announcements:

Club directory is finished and in the mail. Watch for it.

Auction: Jeanne Jelke announced a live auction coming next week for the Empire Recovery Center. Jeanne will send out an email with more information. You can also check the Empire Recovery Center web page for more details.

Proving no good deed goes unpunished, Jeanne donated $100 to her Paul Harris.

Thanks, Jeanne.

Marjeanne Stone donated $100 to her Paul Harris for advertising the upcoming auction for the Empire Recovery Center. She tried to throw Art Sevilla under the bus for another $100, but not sure if she succeeded. Thanks, Marjeanne for the donation and all you do.

International Project: PP Amelia Ward gave an update on one of our club projects. We donated money to a regional hospital in Mexico. The money was used to buy an ultrasound machine and other equipment. Thanks, Amelia for the update and the reminder that the Rotary Club of Redding reaches far beyond national borders to lend a helping hand.

Pumpkin carving contest: Carve your best pumpkin and send the photo to Scott Putnam or PP Amelia Ward by October 24th. Winner will be announced on October 29th.

Honor to Youth: This month we honored Evie from Sequoia School. Evie is an excellent student, is active in sports and in music. Her goal is to go into the medical field in order to help people. Congratulations, Evie. Well done.

Mike Warren arrived at the pavillion with three of his animal trainers and a raccoon named Mischief. Mischief quickly lived up to his name and continuously pestered trainer, Sharon, and others for food.

Sharon was heard to say that Mischief thinks he is a dog, and it sure looked like it. Sharon told us that raccoons have a great sense of feel with their paws which helps them determine what food to eat. She went on to say that when you see a raccoon holding food underwater they are not washing it, but instead the water increases their tactile awareness of the food. Very interesting, and thanks to Mike and his crew. As an aside, you might want to consider renaming Mischief to Moocher.

*District 5160 Governor
Mark Roberts*

President Jake introduced District Governor Mark Roberts who with his wife, Claire, was visiting our club today. President Jake honored Governor Mark with many gifts special to the north state. Governor Roberts spoke of his goals as governor. He recognized the world wide achievements of Rotary and expressed his goal to expand the membership in each Rotary club. He suggested that we should tell the Rotary story to younger people every chance you get. He was a very welcome speaker and we thank him for his visit to our club. Thank you Governor Roberts. It was a pleasure having you visit our club with your wife Claire.
