

Meeting Date: February 11, 2021

Day Editor and Production: Dave Dennis

I'm Here For The Beer!

Before the meeting started, Rick Hill entertained us with his fine guitar playing. Thanks Rick, it adds a lot to our meetings. President Elect Joe Ayers ran the meeting today as President Jake was at Pebble Beach working at the clambake. President Elect Joe introduced co-captains Wendy Dickens and Brad Rullman who got things going. Dee Domke led the pledge, Todd McEfee did the invocation and PP John Dunlap introduced visiting Rotarians and guests. We were off and running.

Announcements: Dollars 4 Dares is ongoing. Please look over the dares and figure out which ones you would like to see happen. It's a good cause. Contact the Rotary office for more information. The video showing the dares that were completed will be shown April 1st.

Recognitions: Trudy Tavares celebrated her 40th wedding anniversary. Congratulations, and thanks for the $400 to the club.

Jessica Whitlow moved into her new house in Sunset West over Christmas. Thanks for the $100 to the club.

Brad Rullman has a new baby girl on the way. Proud Grandpa Ed contributed $100 to a new Paul Harris for the little girl. Brad also contributed $100 to the Paul Harris and an additional $100 to the club. Thanks fellows.

Michelle Nystrom bought a nice travel trailer to camp with. Michelle named the trailer Dora and contributed $100 to the club. Looks like lots of fun.

President Jake checked in from Pebble Beach, looked like he was having fun, and contributed $100 to Dollars 4 Dares to help fund a pie in the face to Joe Wyse. Thanks, Jake.

Joe Wyse and Eva Jimenez each contributed $50 to the club to honor the work the Shasta College Nursing staff and students were doing by helping administer the Covid vaccinations to the public. Thanks Joe and Eva.

PP Gary Burks has a new granddaughter. Gary contributed $100 to the club and another $100 to her Paul Harris. Thanks, Gary.

Program: Assistant District Governor Amelia Ward introduced Past District Governor Steve Lack.

PDG Steve Lack

PDG Steve and others started a Rotary fellowship called BREW (Beer Rotarians Enjoy Worldwide) in 2013.

BREW GOALS

One of the goals of BREW is to create the largest fellowship in Rotary. It is composed of an international community of Rotarians who share a love of all things beer. They also strive to support efforts and projects to bring clean water, typically in third-world countries, to those in thirst since water is the primary ingredient in beer.

BREW ACTIVITIES

BREW publishes WHAT'S BREWING, a Fellowship newsletter quarterly. This newsletter provides information on a variety of beers around the world. It offers recipes and tips for Home Brewers, keeps members informed of Rotary Club Beer Fests around the globe, and activities at the Rotary International Convention.

When BREW attends RI Conventions, they typically host and staff a BREW booth in the House of Friendship.

In addition, they will host a tour of a brewery in the city of the RI Convention.

They will also hold an annual business meeting of the membership and encourage and support the formation of local BREW Chapters.

BREW MEMBERSHIP

There are two classes of membership. There is the annual membership of $20 per year or a lifetime membership of a $100 one-time payment. More information at Rotarybrew.org.

PDG Steve is very enthusiastic about beer. He went through the history of beer over the last several thousand years. He pointed out several health advantages of beer over local water. He gave some good tips. One of the best ones, I thought, was to drink your beer out of a glass and not a can or bottle. Pour it in such a way as to have a good head of the beer in the glass. This enhances both the flavor and enjoyment while drinking.

BREW has developed a new beer four-way test. PDG Steve was a very knowledgeable and enthusiastic speaker. He gave a great program and I hope he comes back often.
