

$28,600.00 for Scholarships Being Distributed to Students

Superintendent, Rob Adams announced the names of The Redding Rotary Scholarship winners from Shasta High School. Thanks to the work of the Scholarship committee headed by Wendy Dickens, Cindy Fisher and Karen Karnatz, we had eleven recipients. There were three levels of awards based on academic excellence. The first was $500.00, followed by $1000.00 and the largest was $2000.00.

Because of age only the first names of the awardees is given.

The $500.00 award went to Britney, Natalie, John, Megan and Leah.

The $1000.00 award went to Josephine Teresa, Thomas and Pahul.

The $2000.00 award went to Robert, Riley and Whitney.

Another Great Meeting At The Gifford Pavillion

Jake's Recognitions

This song (click here) says it all. Creeky Randy Smith inadvertently set his pants on fire while doing his usual great work restoring Redding's stream habitat.

It seems that while burning the slash from a recent Stream Team project the fire got away. Now what do you do when the fire gets away, you stamp on the flames. The pesky fire latched onto Randy's pants, thus the burnt Wranglers.

Randy donates what was left on his pledge.

Gene knows what it is like having a hip that is bone on bone. He knew there was a problem when he could hear that grinding sound while walking.

His doctor recommended a hip replacement which was done February 4th. Gene mentioned the wonderful feeling of no pain when waking up from surgery. Gene donated $100.00 to the Foundation.

Recognitions Continued

Courtney McElvain and Adam recently decided to check out the weather in Florida. From the pictures at the left the weather was fine. Looks like a great time was had by all.

Courtney donated $100.00 to the club.

It was with great sadness that we have learned that Rick Plummer will be moving to Georgia. He may not be wearing the Green Jacket but no doubt will be doing a great job in the medical marketing field.

Thanks for being a great member Rick!!!

SEEKING THE ELUSIVE GREEN JACKET?

Steve Westlake let us know he has participated with a group called "Fresh Start Surgical Gifts. The group raises money to bring in surgeons, dentists and other medical personnel to help children with birth defects. The group buys all the surgical supplies needed. The work is done in San Diego.

Steve donated $100.00 to his Paul Harris and another $100.00 to help with purchasing Randy Smith a new shirt and pants to honor the great work he does for the Redding community.

A big thank you to Kim Christofferson for all she does for our club. It is all the little things that she does that makes a difference in all the happens in Redding Rotary.

Thanks Kim!!!!
