District Governor

Team 3 Holds In Person Meeting at Turtle Bay Pavillion

President Jake started the meeting by counting the number of meetings he has left. The magic number is 10. This is something that every president does. It must be said that President Jake has done a fantastic job in the face of the pandemic and being forced to hold virtual meetings.

Hopefully by the time President Elect Joe Ayer takes over we will be back at Riverview and having in person meetings.

Jake's Virtual Recognitions

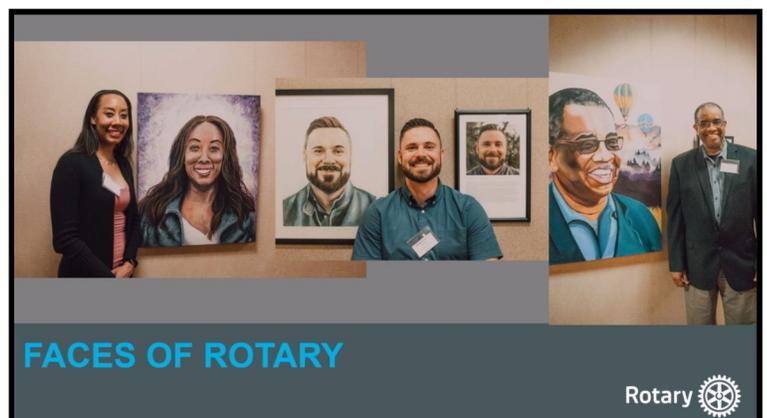

First to be recognized was Janice Cunningham. Janice has been snowmobiling in Oregon. The family took two sleds and did their best to avoid hitting trees and other inanimate objects like boulders.

Janice mentioned reaching the speed of 70mph. Good thing they missed the trees and boulders.

Two sleds equaled $200 for her donation. Thanks Janice.

Randy donated $200 for his wife being honored. Congratulations for the honor and thanks for the contribution.

Recognitions Continued

Rick Plummer has had a one half century birthday. He mentioned he hopes the second fifty years is as good as the first. Looks like Rick is celebrating with his pooch.

Rick donated what is left in his pledge to Rotary. Thanks Rick and happy birthday.

Last but by no means least was Jason Salter. Jason was not present but acting on his behalf was dad Lee. It seems Jason's wife, Irene was very instrumental in making the Turtle Bay auction a big success. Lee was asked what would be fair as a recognition. He mentioned $100 but made sure we knew Jason would pay it. The proxy is not responsible for the exchange of funds. Jason wants the funds to go to Polio Plus. Thanks Jason.

Since Lee was at hand he talked about his winter trip to Mount Bachelor. Lee mentioned the skiing was great the first day but it seems there was a patch of ice that cause a problem. Lee went down and fractured his pelvis. It seems a bit unfair to ask for money when an injury occurs but what the heck.

Lee donated $100 for Jason and $100 for his grand-daughter, Caroline. Lee wanted the funds to go to the endowment.

The Dollars 4 Dares Fundraiser is History

Dollars 4 Dares Presentation

This year's fundraiser made $16,050.00. Thanks to all who participated. The Fund Raising Committee was small but mighty, Amelia Ward, Wendy Dickens, Jennifer Finnegan and Mary Brace. The Sponsors were Michelob Ultra, WellCare M.D. and Redding Rancheria. Also thanks to the participating Directors. An especially big thank you to all those who donated to this year's fund raiser.
