Recognitions

PP Steve Westlake was recognized for stunning "par 3, 450 yard hole...down the right side, hit a cart, bounced off a digger pine... before going in the hole..." Sounds like a tall tale to this reporter, $100 to the club.

Lee Salter was recognized for a dizzying number of recent trips, including a llama packing trip with his wife Judy & fellow club member Cathy Wyatt. $100 to the Club, $100 to the Endowment Fund & $100 to his Paul Harris.

PP Greg Balkovek was recognized for a recent trip to Maine with family, including his son living in IL. Reports include a large amount of lobster was consumed on this trip. $100 to the club.

Pat Corey had a very succesful fishing trip on the coast which resulted in 37 albacore landing in the boat. Pat donated $4 per fish ($148 total) to the club.

Jeanne Jelke celebrated two birthdays recently - her grandson's 10th birthday and her own with an expedition to "Jurassic World" in Oahu. Everyone survived and Jeanne donated $50 to the Club & $50 to her Paul Harris.

Todd Davis was recognized with a very special "thank you" by Club Administration Director Mary Brace for his above-the-call-of-duty efforts for our brand new wireless projector which is a very welcome addition to our new home at the Elks Lodge. Mary gave $250 towards Todd's Paul Harris, and Wendy Dickens, Joe Ayer, and Jake Mangas each gave $100 towards Todd's Paul Harris as well. Thanks so much Todd!!

Today's Program - Catalyst Mentoring

Wendy Dickens introduced our speaker for the day, Jenna Berry. Jenna is the Executive Director of Catalyst Mentoring, a non profit based here in Redding who's vision is to "... invest in our city's youth to invest in our city's future through the power of mentoring". Our own Rotary Club of Redding has been an active supporter of this organization, most notably with their recent Life Skills Academy.

Jenna spoke about the incredible impact that is being brought about in our community through the efforts of ordinary citizens. Catalyst Mentoring provides in-house training for it's volunteers who then commit to spending just one hour per week with a student. The need is simple for these students: have a healthy adult show up consistently and show interest in what interests them.

Some exciting news that Jenna shared is that her organization has received a grant from the Shasta County Office of Education (SCOE) to bring their mentoring model to 30 campuses across the County. This, coupled with a new building they'll move into in October, a new relationship with Dunamis Wellness Center, and additional staff coming on board means that Catalyst Mentoring will be able to have an even greater impact for the young people in our region.

Jenna Berry, Executive Director of Catalyst Mentoring
