

President Joe's Demotion

President Joe Ayer was sent off in style on June 30th with our annual demotion bash. Thanks go out to PP Amelia Ward and PP Kathy Anderson for organizing the event, Mercy Oaks for hosting, and CR Gibbs for providing the meal.

Entertainment for the evening was provided by PP Jake Mangas as master of ceremonies, and a host of club members who put on a "To Tell The Truth" spoof to find out "...will the REAL Joe Ayer... please stand up!...". Evidently Joe Wyse turned out to be the real Joe Ayer.

A final word from now, Past President Joe Ayer:

My Rotary friends,

What an honor it has been to serve as the President of the Redding Rotary Club. I was humbled by the wonderful evening of celebration last night. A BIG THANK YOU to Amelia, Kathy and all the Past Presidents that made the evening so special. It has been a privilege to have served over the last 12 months.

As I transition into Past President life, I am excited to continue with all of you in the great work we do for our community. Our future is bright!! We have so many great programs, like the community grants, and youth scholarships, food for thought, and many other great programs. However, I am really excited about the new signature community fundraiser, Redding Rotary's Haunted House. As you all know, this will take each and every one of us to participate in making this event successful. Start thinking of ways you can contribute your time, talent and treasure.

As the premier Rotary Club in Redding, and I think the world, I am grateful for my time as president, but also elated to be handing off the reins to our new President Mark Ball. Please remember to join us for Mark's induction next Thursday back at Riverview to celebrate his opportunity to lead this great organization.

See you on Thursday for more fun, fellowship and opportunities to serve our community.

*Sincerely your newest Past President,
Joe Ayer*
