

Date of Meeting: August 5th

Day Editor and Publisher: Steve Clark

Rotary After Dark at Waterworks Park

Redding Rotary's usual Thursday luncheon was dark this week as the club's energy was instead focused on fellowship, staying cool, laughing, drinks of all varieties and Players Pizza. Friday August 5th we celebrated the Club's 5th Annual Family Social at Waterwork's Park

Event Organizer Kristi Davis reported, "We had a great night with fun and fellowship at our Rotary Waterworks Family Social. We had 108 people in attendance and the weather was beautiful. Thank you to Players Pizza truck for being onsite and cooking up delicious wood fire pizzas for us to enjoy."

Future Rotarians take a breather from Hi-intensity sliding.

Upcoming: Redding Rotary Riverfloat

Time to get ready! In accord with President Mark's goal to have more Club Social's, Teams 4 and 6 are presenting the Redding Rotary Riverfloat!

When: Saturday August, 27th 1pm to 4pm

Location: Floating from the Rodeo Grounds Boat Launch to Richard Malotky's house located at 6201 Riverside Drive, Redding CA. 96001

Summer is quickly drawing to a close and time is short. Sign up now for an afternoon of comraderie, fellowship and good cool fun!

Final cost to be determined but will be based on total signups and $100/ 6-man raft. Please feel free to bring your own flotation device.

Contact: Brian Scarr or Steve Clark

Bad Joke of the Day: 40% of Waterworks attendee's reported mysterious body aches and a loss of taste, making otherwise delicious pizza taste like cardboard.

Newest Spillway Contributor: This weeks Spillway has been brought to us by our newest contributor, Steve Clark. We expected Steve's first issue to be a disappointment, and as always, Steve exceeded expectations. When asked for a comment about his feelings on his First Edition Steve replied, "Well,.... No news is good news."
