Announcements

Phillip McCarthy let us know about an upcoming grand opening event for his business Flue Season Chimney Sweeps. For more information, please see the graphic in this issue of the Express. As per protocol for self-promotion, Phillip took a $50 fine.

Brian Scarr reminded us about the upcoming Rotary River Float: Team 4 and 6 have organized a river float on Saturday August 27th. It will start at 1:00pm at the Rodeo Grounds boat ramp and end at Richard Malotky's house below Bonnyview around 3 to 4 pm. A day on the river is always fun. Contact Brian Scarr 530-215-7577 or Karen Karnatz 510-798-6973 for more details. They will be able to tell you about raft rentals, flotation devices and other important information. There will be some light refreshments once you get to the Malotky's home courtesy of Team 4.

Lindsay Meyers gave us an update on the Haunted House fundraiser. The event website is now live at ReddingHauntedHouse.org, and you will find a link there to sign up for volunteer opportunities.

Joe Ayer let us know that club elections will happen on September 15th, with today being the first day of notice for nominations.

Dar Barzin reminded us about the blood drive happening at next week's meeting. For more information, please see the graphic in this issue of the Express

Recognitions

Eva Jimenez was recognized for her "32nd" birthday (really?) and for a trip this past weekend to Seattle. $132 to the Club.

Steve Clark was recognized for a business trip to Dallas where he recognized he had a view of Dealey Plaza from his hotel window. $100 to the Club.

Rob Adams was recognized for a trip to Alaska with his wife and 8 friends. $100 to the Club.

Honor to Youth

Brian Scarr introduced the presenters for today's Honor to Youth. Detective Holyrod from SCSO introduced SCSO Explorer Ramiro and she acknowledged his dedicated efforts to community service. Ramiro just started college last week with 6 credits under his belt from his time with the Explorer program.

Corporal Josiah Ferrin from RPD introduced RPD Explorer Joshua. Joshua has over 62 hours of community service to his credit and served as a sergeant in the program this year. He plans to join the Air Force before pursuing a career in law enforcement.

L. to R., Detective Holyrod, Ramiro, President Mark, Joshua, Corporal Josiah Ferrin, and Brian Scarr.

Food for Thought

President Mark introduced Past District Governor Kathy Suvia who was with us today to present a check for $14,000. This check comes from the District as a grant from our investment in the Rotary Foundation. This grant was written to provide ongoing support to the Food for Thought program. Kathy Malain accepted the check on behalf of the Club and she gave us some history about the Food for Thought program.

Today's Program - Remember the 5

Wendy Dickens introduced our speaker for today, Steve May with Remember the 5. This organization serves to maintain the memory of 5 seniors from Enterprise High School who died tragically in a reckless car accident in the late 1960's. Remember the 5 is working to fund a rebuild of an on-campus memorial to the students, develop curriculum to educate students in safe driving practices, and provide college scholarships for the students at Enterprise.

In addition to seeking grants, the group has several fund raising events planned including the sale of memorial bricks, a golf tournament, and a breakfast.

The rebuild of the on-campus memorial will use the talents of Nichols, Melburg and Rossetto architects, Lander Landscaping, and Guiton's Pools.
