Shasta Historical Society

President Mark Ball kicked off the meeting. The Pledge was led by Brian Scarr and the innovation was given by Colin Duffy. Team # 6 ran the meeting. The co-captains are Brian Scarr and Steve Clark. The Sergeant at Arms was Dar Barzin. The Greeters were Andy McCurdy, Mark Rincon, Andree Blanchier, and Saeed Hedayattzadeh.

PP Dave Gerard introduced our guests including Tanner, Phil McCarthy's business partner, and Jason Salter introduced our Program Speaker, Heather Farquhar. There were no Visiting Rotarians.

PP Amelia Ward made an announcement about this year's I-House week. They are looking for hosts to house students (mostly graduate level) from March 25 -30. The students stay for 5 days. They are to be dropped off each morning at City Hall at 8am and then picked up at 5pm. Each day they take off on an exciting adventure including things like skiing and Houseboating, among others. Amelia and others say it is a wonderful experience to have the opportunity to learn about the lives of these students that come from different countries around the world.

President Mark Ball also had an announcement about the upcoming visit from District Governor, Suzanne Bragdon, scheduled for February 9th.

We had the pleasure of hearing a Craft Talk from Phil McCarthy. Phil and his wife, Faith, have 2 children. They have been married for 24 years. They started their lives together in Southern California, then moved to the Sacramento area. Then, eventually moved to Redding. Phil and his partner, Tanner, have a Chimney Sweep business. In addition to information about his family and their business, Phil answered some safety questions about fireplace care as well as dryer vent maintenance. Thank you, Phil!

Brian Scarr introduced this month's students recognized by our Honor to Youth committee. First, Sharon Clay and Adrienne John, from Turtle Bay, nominated Julia Nikodem (HTY recipient). She volunteers at Turtle Bay and loves working with the animal among many other things she does in the community. She is supported in her efforts by her mother, Joanna Nikodem, her father, Robert Martin, and her sister, Jenna Nikodem. Second, Erin Paradis, 4-H Educator and Stephanie Dodson, High School Teacher at Shasta View Academy nominated, Glorianna Junokas, as an HTY recipient. She is supported by her mother, Julie Junokas, and her father, Chris Junokas.

Recognitions

Eva Jiminez took a trip with family to Argentina. While there, they enjoyed the great food and also the wonderful fly fishing. They embarked on an 8 day fishing trip where Eva learned some new ways to cast into the wind. She donated to the club in honor of this exciting excursion!

Congratulations to Jason Montague. He acquired a new store in Chico, as well as a new team. By the way, Jason started his career in Locksmithing in the very store he acquired. We all wished him good luck and he donated to the club in honor of the first currency the Chico store collected, which he is holding in his hand.

This was an “anticipatory” recognition for Rob Adams. He is planning a trip whereby he will take his children and grandchildren on a multi-day Disney Adventure. However, after this recognition and his donation to the club, he may not be able to afford this upcoming trip. Nevertheless, we are not worried, Rob is very resourceful and it is a small world after all!

Jason Salter, a Director at the Shasta Historical Society, introduced Heather Farquhar. She shared information about all the activities and events in which the Shasta Historical Society supports or undertakes. They work with many organizations to help gather and store historical documents, photos, and other artifacts. In addition to helping organize this information, they provide means by which these important aspects of our history can be stored such that they will remain viable and protected for many generations to come. Redding Rotary’s 100 year anniversary in April 2024 is an opportunity for our club to work more closely with the Shasta Historical Society. Heather can be reached at shs@shastahistorical.org.
