Honor to Youth

Brian Scar introduced this month's Honor to Youth "recommenders:"

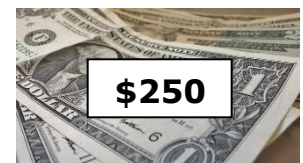

Tim Johnston, VP Student Services at Shasta College introduced recipient, Jordan Jones. Jordan wants to study Cognitive Neuroscience....

Heather Schultz, Shasta Family YMCA introduced recipient, Rachel Mackey. Rachel has been very active in competitive swimming and now leads the YMCA Swimming program in Anderson.

Jordan and Rachel each received a certificate from President Mark Ball and a check for $250 to spend as they so desire! Thanks to the Brian Scar and his committee for identifying these great young people in our community for recognition each month!

Program – "Share-the-Love" – Local Grants

Michelle Nystrom did an excellent job filling in for Committee Chair, Rory Greek, who could not be there for the presentations of these local grants. She was funny, entertaining and made sure all of the recipients were able to share their thanks for receiving the grant and discuss how this money would be used. She also thanked her fellow Rotarians for making it possible to provide these grants totaling:

$19,925

Details for each grant are attached

Parents supporting our Honor to Youth recipients had all the lucky numbers at the end of the meeting drawings.

We had two winners of bottles of wine and one of the wine bottle winners also was called to play the operations game. Unfortunately, the patient did not make it once again.

Since so many of you have participated in this program, Kathy asked if we could share examples of these:

Redding Rotary Supports Boy Scout Troop 37

Article Submitted by PP Greg Balkovek

At its December meeting, the Rotary Board agreed to be the Chartering Organization of Boy Scout Troop 37 and earmarked $500 for the troop's support.

Redding Elks Lodge #1073 was the sponsor of the troop since its inception; however, at the direction of BPOE national, all lodges were directed to not renew their charters with local scouting organizations, much to the consternation of the lodges and, in particular, #1073.

Greg Balkovek, a member of both organizations and past scoutmaster for the troop, was made aware of the situation by Redding dentist Ron Zufall, the lodge's chartered representative, and former Scout District Executive Anna Pownell. Zufall's father was the founding scoutmaster of the troop.

Greg reached out to the lodge's exalted ruler and found the lodge was not happy with the directive, but wanted to continue to house the troop's equipment and provide facilities for programs, meetings and gatherings. Additionally, the lodge wanted to engage the troop in service for which funding could be provided to the troop and scout summer camp expenses.

As the new Chartered Organization Representative (COR), Greg completed the paperwork, two hours of council volunteer training, two hours of federal child endangerment training and a background check. The charter was approved earlier this month.

Greg has met with the troop several times and is working with them on their program and enrollment. Troop 37 is the second Scouting organization sponsored by Redding Rotary. Cub Scout Pack 44 has been sponsored by the Redding Rotary for more than 70 years, the longest running Scouting sponsorship in the Shasta County.
