Today's Program: Youth Options Shasta

Tonja Donoho introduced our speaker for today, Jennifer Colter, Director of Youth Options Shasta. She had with her staff member Skyler Robinson and youth volunteer Kaitlyn. The organization's mission is to promote a safe and healthy communication by providing positive options for youth.

Their main program is the Shasta County Youth Peer Court, which provides a means by which first time juvenile offenders could be diverted from the traditional juvenile justice system into a program which practices restorative, rather than punitive justice. By agreeing to participate in the program, the offenders, called respondents, have the opportunity to have their cases heard before a jury of their peers. If the respondent successfully completes his or her sentence and does not re-offend while in the program, the record for that offense is cleared. The peer jurors and attorneys in Youth Peer Court are youths between the ages of 13-18 from middle and high schools throughout Shasta County.

Their other programs include Youth Firesetter Prevention & Intervention, Shasta Youth Leadership Camp, and Youth Options Mentoring Program.
