

Making Cancer Care a "Home Game"

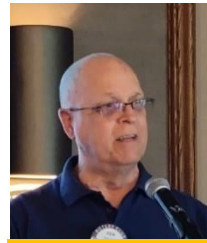

101st Year, 2nd Meeting of Rotary Year 2024-2025

PP Joe Ayer,
Visitors &
Guests &
Invocation

Joe Wyse & PP Joe
Ayer, Team 1
Co-Captains

Rick Fauss,
President

Dr. David
Civalier M.D.,
Speaker

Unfortunately, the BELL disappeared just before the beginning of the meeting. President Rick tried to assess the situation and challenge potential candidates for this unexpected maneuver. However, his quest for a quick resolution was thwarted as no one volunteered information about the transgression.

President Rick was shocked at the outset by the disappearance. However, he quickly realized that he was not immune to such playfulness.

Thank You

President Rick talked about the Committee Sign-Ups. He encouraged those who have not yet signed up for committee participation to do so. He explained that we are making it very convenient by offering online sign-ups or written sign-ups through forms located on the tables in the back of the room.

Here is a link to the form (which you can print, fill-out, and hand in):

Recognitions

PP Jake, PP Joe Ayer, Tood Jones, Todd Davis

We had a potpourri of recognitions that started with a Dignity Health Connected Living Event to honor the expansion of the Food Bank. It doubled in size with grant and community contributions valued at over $1.8 million.

This recognition included a cast of characters. First, PP Joe Ayer showcased the expansion and described the event. Then, PP Jake Mangas talked about how the expansion was funded. He went on to thank the past presidents of the Mercy Foundation North. Then, he thanked Todd Davis for supporting his move to Mercy on short notice, by taking on the Chamber CEO role until a new leader was found. Then, Jake acknowledged that Todd Jones was now the new CEO of the Redding Chamber.

Now. Let's talk money. So, PP Jake offered $100 to the club. Then, Todd Jones offered another $100 to the club. President Rick then focused in on Todd Davis, but PP Jake quickly jumped in and offered to make a $100 contribution to Todd Davis' Paul Harris.

President Rick knows how to turn a long story into a lot of cash! I think the club is in good hands!

Bret Christensen

Bret shared his pride about the coming of his sixth (6th) grandchild. He offered $100 to the club in recognition of this wonderfully expected addition to his family! President Rick added that he also had six (6) grandchildren and a great grandchild. So, he was part of this same crew of grandparents.

Joe Girimonte

Joe's granddaughter graduated from Air Force training as an E8. She is stationed in Ohio. The family is very proud of this accomplishment. Joe honored this accomplishment with a gift of $100 to the club!

President Rick

PP Ed Rullman thought it was appropriate for our new President to be fined for losing his BELL so early in his tenure. Although it seemed to be quite a "setup," President Rick took his medicine and offered $100 to the club! After the acceptance the fine, the BELL mysteriously re-appeared!

Games and Raffles

Randy Smith had the white ticket for the TILE Game. He drew an "N." Unfortunately, that was not a letter in the 1st of the 4 Way Tests. So, we move on to next week with more money and less TILES!

The Raffles was a gift certificate to CR Gibbs donated by Dignity Health Connected Living!
