- Jill Wilson new Chair of Interact Committee
- AV is working on plans to improve audio at meetings
- Ding-A-Lings about to get going!

One of our very own, an active part in history. Randy Smith shared how he was present at a Veteran's Day Ceremony at Arlington Nat'l Cemetery. He witnessed JFK and his Joint Chiefs deliver honoring words.

Two Weeks later, Randy has to return to honor JFK after his assassination....

HISTORY MINUTE

Published in our Spillway newsletter on November 20, 2003:

"On November 11, forty years ago, I was among a small gathering at Arlington National Cemetery. We had the day off and could do as we pleased from our military assignments. Most of the Joint Chiefs and the Secretary of Defense were there. President Kennedy gave an unscheduled spontaneous speech. He spoke about honoring our war dead in this special place on this 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month. He was especially tall and handsome and spoke with uncommonly powerful delivery.

It was impossible to know, watching and listening to him from twenty feet away in the morning's light, that in two weeks I would return to see his coffin lowered into nearby ground."

Randy Smith, Redding Rotarian and former captain, U.S. Army Medical Corps.

RECOGNITIONS - Kathy Malain

Kathy Malain shared photos of her three (3) grandkids and her new dog.

She also traveled with her husband, Guy, to celebrate their fortieth (40) anniversary.

In honor of these very wonderful blessings, she donated $100 to the Club!

PP Tom Semingson was recognition for wearing Paul Harris pin. He offered $100 to the Club as a means of moving the attention quickly away from the fact that he had done what was asked of us this month by wearing that pin!
