Today's Program - Jailhouse Attack Update

Mike Mangas introduced Lieutenant Tim Renault, highlighting his extensive career in law enforcement. Tim began as a correctional officer with the Shasta County Sheriff's Office in 2002 and later joined the Antioch Police Department in 2004. His dream of becoming a Redding police officer was realized when he was hired by the city of Redding.

Tim holds a bachelor's degree in Administration of Justice and is a 2018 graduate of Leadership Redding. His roles have included patrol officer, SWAT team member, sniper, detective, and special services unit sergeant, among others. He has also served as a firearms instructor, active shooter instructor, taser instructor, and peer support team leader.

Upon his promotion to lieutenant, Tim managed field operations and the special services unit. He currently serves in the administrative division. Tim has been married to his wife, Audrey, for 17 years, and they have two sons, Brennan and Grayson.

Tim shared a harrowing experience from his career, detailing an incident in 2022 when he was attacked by inmates while working as a correctional officer. The attack involved two inmates who had planned to escape by killing Tim and using his uniform. Despite being severely injured, Tim fought back until help arrived. The attackers were later prosecuted, with one committing suicide and the other sentenced to life in prison.

Tim's story emphasized the dangers faced by correctional officers and the importance of vigilance and training. He also discussed the changes in jail protocols and the need for better mental health support for officers. The event concluded with a Q&A session, where Tim answered questions about his experience and the current state of the jail system. The audience expressed gratitude for his service and resilience.

An unexpected reunion between Lt. Renault and the plastic surgeon from his attack, PP Mark Ball
